I am Human
Artist: Escape the Fate
Non-Airable Tracks: 1, 9, 10, 11
Label: Better Noise Records

Escape the Fate is back with some more metalcore. This album is pretty generic, metalcore often suffers from sounding the same. The album isn't bad, but it definitely doesn't break any new ground. It is very similar to much of the band's other work.

The album was produced well, all of the instrumentals sound good. The guitars are mixed well and are heavy. The vocals are very clean sounding and have good delivery. You may or may not like the vocals, it depends on your taste. This is metalcore, so if you like whiny love songs, this is the place for you. All jokes aside, the album is pretty decent. The songs are simplistic, but they are well written and catchy. I don't have anything else to say, this is metalcore, sounds like metalcore.
